Kay,

I've forwarded your email request to the Governor's Scheduling Office so that they have the pertinent information. In the future, you can request a meeting with the Governor by emailing scheduling@nc.gov.

Subject: request from Kay re meeting with Governor Cooper Mon. July 31 or week of Aug. 1-4

Good afternoon, Jeremy,

I am writing to request again, if you could kindly propose and arrange a brief meeting with the governor to include 3 North Carolinians who grew up in the governor's home community? I am happy to provide the names of those individuals, one of whom you've already met, Marvin Winstead. The days we propose are Mon. July 31 or any day next week, week of Tues. Aug. 1 through Fri. Aug.4.

Yesterday, you may have heard about the No ACP rally by the governor's home. It must be very challenging for the governor and all his staff (including you) with the crescendo of pressure from so many different groups and interests in favor of, and those in opposition to the ACP.

Our personal, quiet request is that you ask the governor if he would meet with these three individuals from his community? Marvin told me yesterday that one of them personally knows Governor Cooper. It is clear that the governor has warm feelings about his childhood home and his community. This is an opportunity for him to hear another much more personal perspective than he may be experiencing with all the diverse constituents.

Look forward to hearing from you soon.

Kind regards,

Kay
